FORENSICS AND DEBATE

Prof. Melvin Wyler
Forensics

The Forensic and Debate teams talked their way out of several highly competitive tournaments and into the trophy cabinet during the 1973-74 season.

Although novices outnumbered the veterans on both teams, the Shepherd squads placed among the winners at many of the tournaments.

Only a few of the novice speakers appear in the picture on the opposite page. The rest must have been off on a soapbox practicing.

THE MARCHING RAMS

The Marching Rams, directed by Professor James D. Robertson, performed in concert on November 12, 1973, at the Veterans Administration Center.

PEP BAND

The basketball season finds the ex-marching musicians seated on a platform in the gym adding spirit to the games.

THE FOUNDERS DAY BALL

While the Band played on, Dr. Katherine Frescolmi danced with her husband.

"The wailin' of the saxes when those fellows go mad . . ."

SWINGING SHEPHERDS JAZZ ENSEMBLE

Professor Farrell Coy not only directs the band, he toots the flute.

The Shepherd Symphonic Band went on a concert tour March 11-13 in the Northern Panhandle of W. Va. and part of Pennsylvania.

The tour was made by charter bus and was planned and conducted by Professor James D. Robertson.

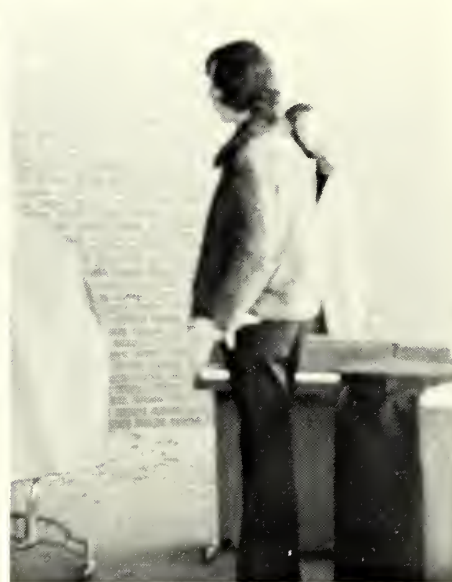

The Band and Wind Ensemble presented a wide range of compositions.

Musicians featured on the tour were trombonist Scooter Ziebell, tubaist James Gainer, and trumpeters Scot Eversole and Bob Frushour. Karen Mayer was student director on tour.

With only 16 returning lettermen from the 1972 WVIAC championship team, the 1973 Rams faced the toughest teams ever to oppose Shepherd.

Coach Walter Barr raced a major rebuilding job, but starting with game one, the freshmen and sophomores played like veterans. The final result of their outstanding efforts was a hard-earned 6-4 record.

The season opened with an away game victory over West Virginia Wesleyan on September 8. The Bobcats fell before the advancing Rams with the score at 20-7.

The victory over W. Va. Wesleyan inspired the team when the Rams came home on September 15 to take the sting out of the Randolph-Macon Yellow Jackets. With a score of 38-18, Shepherd beat the Maconeers for the first time after six straight defeats.

At the annual Civitan Bowl game played in Martinsburg on the night of September 22, the Rams skunked Concord 40-0. Shepherd retained the Civitan trophy and Perry Hubbard and Ike Karavellas captured the most valuable player awards.

The Rams received a painful sting from the powerful Baldwin-Wallace Yellow Jackets on September 29 in Cleveland, Ohio. The fighting Shepherd gridmen had to accept their first seasonal defeat with a score of 47-6.

Victory returned with the Rams for Homecoming on October 6. In a close game Shepherd knocked the stuffing out of the W. Va. Tech Golden Bears for a 14-7 tally.

Unfortunately the victory of Homecoming did not carry over to the game on October 13 against West Liberty. The Rams staged an exceptional battle against Liberty (the team has been one of Shepherd's most persistent rivals), but Shepherd's second defeat came with a score of 33-10.

Repeating the success of the Civitan Bowl, the Rams conquered Bluefield State 17-0 at home on October 20.

With a near perfect score of 40-7, Shepherd flooded the scoreboard in an away game at Bridgewater on October 27.

Things were looking up for the Rams until they tackled the tough Salem team led by Jack Delloplaine. Though Shepherd was first on the board with a 27 yard field goal, Salem over-powered the Rams for a 21-3 victory.

Though the team had lost the WVIAC title, they were still hoping to maintain a 7-3 record as they stormed the homefield against the Hampden-Sydney Tigers on Parents' Day, November 10.

In a thrilling end of the season performance, the Rams displayed a little of everything. One of the games highlights was the 55 yard field goal booted by Rick Kingsbury to set a new conference record.

With only 38 seconds to go the score was 14-13 in favor of the Tigers. With only four seconds left, Kingsbury attempted a field goal. All hopes of victory were shattered when the kick was partially blocked.

The gun sounded to end the game and the season with a record of six wins against four hard-fought defeats.

Cheering isn't easy as it looks. It's a lot of practice and sore throats.

Cheerleaders not only cheer, but also search for missing contact lenses.

But for having some people yell with them means a lot, for themselves, the crowds,
the team and especially SCHOOL SPIRIT. So ...

Homecoming, 1973 was again the OKTOBERFEST. Activities which took place were the traditional parade, midway and football game.

Half-time activities during the game included the band and the Homecoming Queen Coronation of Kay Dawson. The day of activities ended with a dance in the gym.

Due to lack of photographs and photographers, the Sport Section is not as complete as wished to be. Women's Varsity and Intramurals were not covered. I do hope we will be able to do more coverage of these sports next year. A special thanks to John Mofield, Bob Starkey, Dr. Dunn, Dave Newlin and Kim Hackler for last minute photographs and help.

The new million dollar addition to the College Student Center was dedicated in a ceremony at Homecoming on October 7, 1973.

The addition, paid for mostly out of student fees, began construction on July 21, 1972 with a projected completion by the opening of the 1973 fall term.

Student Center Director Clinton Davis put each new facility into operation as it was completed. The Bookstore was the last section finished and opened on March 18, 1974.

Student life revolves around the facilities provided by the new addition.

STAFF

One of the most welcomed additions to the campus this year was the establishment of WSHC, the college educational radio station.

After several years of planning and much effort on the part of Professor George Wilson and the administration, the equipment was readied and on Oct. 25 the antenna was installed.

The station operated by the students, broadcasts with ten watts power at 88.7 on the FM dial.

The staff members are students interested in broadcasting. They are: Station Manager Bob Grissinger, Matt Kellam, Donna Edsall, Cathy Nichols, Darl Ferguson, Joe Papola, Bob Fleenor, Benton Miller, Mike Yurish, Jeff Harris, and Hoppy Kercheval.

The first broadcast took place on December 12 and Shepherd has been listening ever since.

Editors' Open Letter to all Readers:

Shepherd College is like the barnyard in the story of the Little Red Hen. When asked to help produce the yearbook the majority are quick to say, "Not I", but when told that the books are ready for distribution, they stampeded and demand their copy and proceed to criticize.

Like the Little Red Hen, our staff has labored without credit nor much support from the campus. Faced with a cut budget, limited assistance, and a contract decreasing the size of the book, the staff compiled to the best of their ability an accurate and interesting account of the 1973-74 term. Please consider these facts as you avail yourselves of the product of our efforts.

We realize that, as always, you will have criticisms of this book. We ask that those of you who find fault will also find time to help correct those flaws in next years Cohongoroota.

Everyone involved with the yearbook is a volunteer. You will receive little recognition or material compensation for your work, but you will at least have the satisfaction of knowing that you helped produce the kind of book you wanted.

As Editors-in-Chief, we would like to extend a sincere thank-you to our staff as a whole, and a special thanks to the following for their extensive assistance without which we could not have produced the book we did.
